PROMOTING RESPONSIBLE USE OF TECHNOLOGY & SAFE ONLINE BEHAVIOUR

Together, let's help our young learners build healthy digital habits, stay safe online and use technology as a tool for learning, growth and positivity.

WHAT WE ARE REINFORCING IN SCHOOL

- Mindful and purposeful use of devices for learning
- Awareness of digital safety, privacy and respectful online interactions
- Building self-regulation and screen-time discipline

KEY STRATEGIES FOR HOME

ESTABLISH A "DIGITAL HOME BASE":
Encourage the use of devices in common areas rather than bedrooms. This naturally promotes openness and helps prevent late-night screen use that can interfere with sleep.

THE "FRONT PAGE" RULE:
Remind your child that anything shared online—messages, photos, or comments—can remain there permanently and reach a wide audience. If they wouldn't want it on a front-page headline, it's best not to post it.

MODEL HEALTHY HABITS:
Children learn by observing adults. Creating "tech-free zones" (such as during family meals) helps model a healthy balance between screen time and real-life interactions.

PRIVACY IS PERSONAL:
Encourage children to treat personal information such as their address, school name, and passwords as confidential. Guide them to check with you before sharing information online.

KEEP THE DOOR OPEN:
Most importantly, reassure your child that they can approach you without fear or judgment if they encounter something uncomfortable or make a mistake online.

OUR SHARED GOAL

When children experience consistent guidance at home and school, they are more likely to:

- Stay focused and organised in their learning
- Make safe and responsible choices online
- Develop self-discipline and independence

Together, we can raise responsible digital citizens and confident learners.
